The North American Society for Intelligence History (NASIH) announces its graduate essay prize in intelligence history

The top three papers will be presented at the 2020 NASIH conference which will take place at Trinity College, University of Toronto, November 12 - 14, 2020.

The Prize includes up to $1000 (CND) each for travel and accommodation and an additional $250 (CND) for the best paper written by a male student and $250 (CND) for the best paper written by a female student.

All three papers will also be published in the Journal of Military and Strategic Studies.

The deadline for submission is June 1, 2020.

Papers are to be submitted to ferris@ucalgary.ca.

All papers must deal with a topic related to intelligence history. Papers must be between 20-25 pages. Papers over 25 pages will be excluded.